General and complete disarmament: transparency in armaments

United Nations Register of Conventional Arms

Report of the Secretary-General

Summary

The present report is the seventeenth consolidated report issued by the Secretary-General since the establishment of the Register. It contains data and information provided by 58 Governments on the international transfers of major conventional arms covered by the Register and additional background information for the calendar year 2008. Any additional replies received from Governments will be issued as addenda to the present report.

Section II of the present report includes an index of information submitted by Governments and their replies on conventional arms transfers.

Section III contains background information submitted by Governments on military holdings and procurement through national production.

Section IV includes background information submitted by Governments on international transfers of small arms and light weapons.

All relevant information on the Register is available electronically on the Register website of the Office for Disarmament Affairs at http://disarmament.un.org/cab/register.html.

* A/64/50.

I. Introduction

1. The present report is the seventeenth consolidated report on the United Nations Register of Conventional Arms, and is submitted pursuant to General Assembly resolution 63/69.

2. The Office for Disarmament Affairs organized a number of promotional events related to the United Nations Register. They included a regional workshop on transparency in armaments for West African States, held in Dakar, Senegal, on 9 and 10 June 2009. The workshop was aimed at raising awareness of the United Nations Register of Conventional Arms among governmental representatives of the West African countries, enhancing practical skills while compiling national reports and encouraging greater participation of States from the region in the Register.

3. Furthermore, the Office for Disarmament Affairs produced relevant background publications on the subject, which can be accessed at the web page as follows: http://www.un.org/disarmament/HomePage/ODAPublications/OccasionalPapers.

II. Information received from Governments[1]

4. Information received from Governments is presented below as follows:

- Section A — an index received by the Secretary-General;
- Section B — individual replies of Governments on transfers of conventional arms.

Where appropriate, the relevant parts of notes verbale are reproduced.

5. The index of returns is provided for ease of reference. As regards the information contained in the index, it should be noted that a "yes" denotes a submission of data regarding imports and/or exports in relation to the seven categories of arms covered by the Register during the reporting period. For the purpose of uniform tabulation, responses by Governments that contained either "nil", "none", "0", a dash (-) or which otherwise indicated that no exports and/or imports in the categories covered by the Register had taken place are reflected in the tables as "nil" reports. A blank space under data on imports and/or exports in the index of information indicates that no information was provided. In some cases, however, an explanation can be found in the note verbale of the country in question, as indicated above. Only those parts of the standardized forms that contain specific data and notes verbale of Governments providing relevant information, are reproduced in section B. Replies in the standardized reporting forms and the simplified "nil" reporting form or in notes verbale containing "nil" or blank reports are listed in the index of information only.

[1] Documents have been reproduced as received; the designations employed do not imply the expression of any opinion on the part of the Secretariat of the United Nations concerning the legal status of any country, territory or area, or of its authorities.

Notes:

1. Germany applies the departure of equipment from the exporter's territory and arrival of equipment in the importer's territory as criteria for recording its arms transfers.

2. Germany continues:

   (a) to record only transfers of complete equipment, as defined in the seven categories, and

   (b) not to include transfers of the following items:

      (i) items that have been demilitarized;

      (ii) items transferred for destruction or disposal (especially scrapping);

      (iii) items serving as museum exhibits.

3. Germany submitted a paper "German Policy and Practice on Export of Conventional Weapons and Related technology" that is available at the Office for Disarmament Affairs.

[1] Canada's background information on military holdings has been drawn from the "Canadian Global Exchange of Military Information" report, which is submitted annually to the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe, and is valid as of 1 January 2009. This is in accordance with United Nations Secretariat Department of Disarmament Affairs guidance, which advises that States submit those documents generated by their respective Governments during the reporting year on military holdings, and that no special reports need to be prepared for submission to the Register. Canada is willing to provide additional information on military holdings as requested. As in the 2008 "Canadian Global Exchange of Military Information" report, Canada is reporting all holdings, including surplus and written-off equipment. Equipment that is surplus and is being dismantled or disposed of will be footnoted.

[2] Battle Tanks: 66 Leopard C2 currently in service, 20 Leopard 2A6 are on loan from Germany, currently in service; 80 Leopard 2A4 and 20 Leopard 2A6 purchased from the Netherland are awaiting refurbishment and are not currently in service.

[3] APC: 104 are operated, including 57 RG-31 Nyala APV and 47 Bison APC.
161 Grizzly APC are declared surplus and parked awaiting disposal;
100 Grizzly APC are on loan to African Union mission in Darfur, Sudan;
553 M113A2 APC are pending disposal instructions;
22 M113A2 Bulldozers are pending disposal instructions;
32 M113A2 Engineer are pending disposal instructions.
All 175 Cougar HACV are declared surplus and parked, awaiting disposal.

[4] Guns/Howitzers: 138 are operated, 34 C1 105mm Howitzer and 26 M109A4 (+) 155mm Howitzer are declared surplus and parked, awaiting disposal. Canada has no holdings in this category with a calibre of under 100mm.

[5] The term "primary trainer aircraft" is here defined as an aircraft that is designed and constructed for primary flying training and which may possess only limited armament capability necessary for basic training in weapon delivery techniques.

[6] This figure excludes 13 CU-161 Sperwer and 1 CU-171 Heron tactical UAV, which are not considered combat aircraft.
